Definitions:

A complaint is a written or verbal statement expressing dissatisfaction based on and unsatisfactory or unacceptable experience and would generally be directed at the general performance of RTO or its Staff in the delivery of our services.

Grievance is a complaint of a behaviour or action which has or is likely to have an unreasonable negative impact on the student in relation to their learning experience.

An appeal in the context of Vocational Education and Training is a right given to the student to challenge an assessment outcome should they be dissatisfied believing that the decision made was incorrect.

Complainant is a person being a student, guardian, employer or host employer who makes a complaint against the RTO.

Appellant is a person being the student who appeals the assessment decision outcome as being wrongly decided.

1. Complaints and Appeals

- 1.1. The RTO will ensure that all efforts to manage received complaints and/or appeals is approached and executed in a timely, transparent and objective manner by:
 - 1.1.1. Ensuring the views of each complainant, appellant and respondent are respected and that each party is not discriminated against nor victimised.
 - 1.1.2. That the RTO maintains confidentiality at all times during the complaint or appeal and resolution process respecting the rights of the complainant and/or appellant.
 - 1.1.3. Educating RTO staff the general nature of a complaint or appeal being although not limited to:
 - 1.1.3.1. The enrolment, induction/ orientation process and or advice given;
 - 1.1.3.2. The quality of services offered and provided;
 - 1.1.3.3. Student progress in training and assessment;
 - 1.1.3.4. The assessment system;
 - 1.1.3.4.1. The assessment was not carried out in accordance of the assessment strategy;
 - 1.1.3.4.2. The assessment decision was incorrect;
 - 1.1.3.4.3. The assessment process did not meet the principles of assessment.
 - 1.1.3.5. Access to personal records;
 - 1.1.3.6. Decisions made by the RTO;
 - 1.1.3.7. The way someone has been treated;
 - 1.1.3.8. Suspension and/or cancellation of enrolment;
 - 1.1.3.9. Student safety and well-being;
 - 1.1.3.10. Fees and charges.
 - 1.1.4. Implement and communicate procedures and processes in attempt to minimise and/or eliminate the cause of complaints and appeals.
 - 1.1.5. Encourage wherever possible to resolve issues directly made before being escalated to a formal complaint and/or appeal.
 - 1.1.6. Providing staff with clear processes in how to approach and manage a complaint and/or appeal whilst adhering to Standard 6 which includes assisting the complainant to lodge a formal complaint.
 - 1.1.7. Providing students and/or customers with access to the RTO complaint and appeals policy and procedure including their individual rights and obligations.

2. Non-limitation of policy

- 2.1. This policy and related procedures do not replace or modify those or any other responsibilities which may arise under other policies or under statute or any other law. Nothing in this policy and related procedure limits the rights of individuals to take action under Australia's Consumer Protection laws. Also, this policy does not circumscribe an individual's rights to pursue other legal remedies.
